- 4.05 Resignation. A resignation pursuant to paragraph 4.04(b) shall be effective on the date specified in the resignation.

ARTICLE V

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

- 5.01 Election. The election of the Board of Directors shall be held at the annual general meeting of the members of the Centre
- 5.02 Nomination. The Board of Directors shall establish a Nominating Committee in accordance with Section 9.02 hereof, which Nominating Committee shall be responsible for nominating for election directors who meet the criteria set out in Section 4.03 hereof. The chair of the Nominating Committee shall present a slate of nominee officers whose terms are up, to the members attending the annual general meeting of the members. Nominations from the floor will not be accepted unless the Nominating Committee has not presented a minimum of one nominee for the officer in which case nominations will be called for and accepted from the floor.

The Nomination Committee will present the nominees for each position of Director of Communications, Director of Sports and the 3 Members at Large. If there are more than one nominee for each of these positions, an election will be held at the meeting. In the event that a nominee director is not present at the Annual General Meeting of the members, then such nominee director must file a written statement of agreement with the chair of the Nominating Committee to be read to the members at the annual general meeting.

- 5.03 Term. A director's term of office shall be one or two years, and each director may serve no more than six consecutive years, with the exception of the past chair, who may serve an additional one-year ex-officio term per 11.06(b).

The term of office for directors shall commence immediately following the date of the annual general meeting at which they are elected and conclude upon the election or appointment of their successors.

Following the conclusion of six consecutive years, individuals are not eligible to serve as directors for at least one full year.

ARTICLE VI

MEETING OF DIRECTORS

- 6.01 (a) Directors' meetings may be held at any place within Manitoba, as the directors may from time to time determine. There shall be at least eight (8) meeting of the directors per year. A meeting of directors may be convened by (a) the Chair, or (b) one-third (1/3) directors.

(b) Notice of a directors' meeting shall be provided to directors of the Centre by any of the following means:

- (i) By email sent to each director not less than seven (7) days before the meeting is to take place. For the purpose of mailing notice to any director, the email address of the director shall be his or her last address recorded on the books of the Centre; or

(ii) by electronic means such as e-mail or facsimile at least seven (7) days before the meeting.

(c) A director may in any manner and at any time waive notice of a meeting of directors and attendance of the director at a meeting of directors shall constitute a waiver of notice of the meeting except where such director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully called. No error or omission in giving notice of any meeting of the directors shall invalidate such meeting or make void any proceedings taken thereat.

(d) Notice of any directors' meeting shall include minutes of the previous meeting of the directors and a preliminary meeting agenda identifying the items to be discussed at the meeting.

(e) The continuing directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body.

6.02 Quorum - A majority of directors shall form a quorum for the transaction of business.

6.03 Voting - Questions arising at any meeting of directors shall be decided by a majority of votes. Each director shall be entitled to one vote. Votes by proxy shall not be accepted. The Chair may only vote in the event of a tie. A resolution signed by all of the directors shall be as valid and effective as if passed at a meeting of directors duly called, constituted and held.

6.04 Telephone- The directors of the Centre may meet by teleconference provided that either a majority of the directors' consent to the meeting by teleconference or meetings by teleconference have been approved by resolution passed by the directors at a meeting of the directors of the Centre.

6.05 Meetings by Other Electronic Means. Directors may participate in a meeting through use of electronic video screen communication, or other communications equipment so long as all of the following apply:

(a) the directors of the Centre have passed a resolution addressing the mechanics of holding such a meeting and dealing with how security issues should be handled, and the procedure for establishing quorum and recording votes;

(b) each director participating in the meeting has access to the specific means of communications to be used and can communicate with all of the other directors concurrently;

(c) each director is provided with the means of participating in all matters before the Board of Directors, including the capacity to propose, or to interpose an objection to, a specific action to be taken by the Board of Directors; and

(d) each director has consented in advance to meeting by electronic means using the specific means of communication proposed for the meeting.

ARTICLE VII

DIRECTORS INTERESTED IN OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

7.01 Loans. The Centre shall not make any loan of money or property to, or guarantee the obligation of, any director or officer; provided, however, that the Centre may, but shall not be required to, advance money to a director or officer of the Centre for expenses reasonably anticipated to be incurred in performance of the duties of such director or officer so long as such individual would be entitled to be reimbursed for such expenses absent that advance.

7.02 Conflict of Interest. A director who is in any way directly or indirectly interested in a contract or proposed contract with the Centre shall make the disclosure required by the Act and except as provided by the Act, no such director shall vote on any resolution to approve such contract. Subject to compliance with the Act, no contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Centre in which any director shall in any way directly or indirectly be interested shall be avoided or voidable and no director shall be liable to account to the Centre or any of its members or creditors for any profit realized by or from any such contract or arrangement by reason of any fiduciary relationship.

7.03 Submission of Contracts or Transactions to Members for Approval. The Board of Directors, in its discretion, may submit any contract, act or transaction with the Centre for approval or ratification at any annual meeting of the members or at any special meeting of members called for the purpose of considering the same and, any such contract, act or transaction that shall be approved or ratified or confirmed by a resolution passed by a majority of votes cast at any such meeting (unless any different or additional requirement is imposed by the Act, the Articles of Incorporation or this By-law) shall be as valid and as binding upon the Centre and upon all the members as though it had been approved, ratified or confirmed by every member of the Centre.

ARTICLE VIII

REMUNERATION OF DIRECTORS

8.01 Remuneration. The directors as such shall not be entitled to any remuneration whatsoever, but they shall be entitled to be paid any expenses properly incurred by them in connection with the affairs of the Centre.

ARTICLE IX

COMMITTEES

- 9.01 Executive Committee. The Board of Directors may appoint an Executive Committee during any fiscal year of the Corporation.
- (a) Composition. The Executive Committee's composition shall be determined by the Board of Directors from time to time, provided that the Executive Committee shall always include the Chair.
  - (b) Supervision. The Executive Committee shall supervise and control the management of the affairs of the Centre between meetings of the Board of Directors and shall act on matters referred to it by the Board of directors and officers and shall initiate or refer matters for consideration by the Board of Directors. The Executive Committee shall be responsible for reporting to the Board of Directors.
- 9.02 Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee shall meet annually and at such other necessary times to nominate to the members eligible candidates for election as directors of the Centre.
- (a) Composition. The Nominating Committee shall be composed of such number of members of the Centre as set by the Board of Directors from time to time. The Board shall appoint the Nominating Committee and shall be entitled to fill any vacancies that occur from time to time on the Nominating Committee.
  - (b) Notice of Meeting. Meetings of the Nominating Committee may be held at any time and place to be determined by the Nominating Committee, provided that notice of any meeting shall be given to each member in person at least seven (7) days (exclusive of the day on which the notice is given) prior to the date of such meeting. Notice shall be deemed to have been given on the date such notice shall have been delivered or sent by electronic mail or by telephone or if mailed, three (3) business days after the notice is deposited in the mail. Any member of the Nominating Committee may at any time waive notice of any meeting and may ratify and approve of any and all proceedings taken or had thereat. No errors or omissions in giving notice of any meeting of the Nominating Committee or any adjourned meetings of the Nominating Committee of the Centre shall invalidate such meeting or make void any proceedings taken thereat.
  - (c) Quorum. A quorum for the purposes of any meeting of the Nominating Committee shall be a majority of the members of the Nominating Committee.
- 9.03 Other Committees. The Centre may have at any time such other Committees appointed by the Board of Directors as the Board of Directors deems desirable. The Board of Directors shall be responsible for approving.

the terms of reference in respect of each Committee. The composition of such other Committees may include members of the Centre.

- 9.04 Terms of Committees. All Committees, other than the Nominating Committee, shall have terms corresponding to the fiscal year of the Corporation unless otherwise specified in the Board of Directors enabling resolution for such Committee. In the event of vacancies for any reason or the inability of a member to perform duties on any appointed Committee, the Board of Directors may appoint a successor to serve out the unexpired term of such member, except as otherwise provided above. Any Committee member may be removed at any time by resolution of the Board of Directors.
- 9.05 Dissolution of Committees. Any Committee can be dissolved at any time by resolution of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE X

FOR PROTECTION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND OTHERS

- 10.01 Limitation of Liability. No director or officer of the Centre shall be liable for the acts, receipts, neglects or defaults of any other director or officer or employee, or for any loss, damage or expense happening to the Centre through the insufficiency or deficiency of title to any property acquired by order of the Board of Directors for or on behalf of the Centre, or for the insufficiency or deficiency of any security in or upon which any of the monies of the Centre shall be invested, or for any loss or damage arising from the bankruptcy, insolvency or tortious acts of any person with whom any of the monies, securities or effects of the Centre shall be deposited, or for any loss occasioned by any error of judgment or oversight on his or her part, or for any other loss, damage or misfortune whatever which shall happen in the execution of the duties of his or her office or in relation thereof, unless the same are occasioned by his or her own willful negligence or default, provided that nothing herein shall relieve any director or officer of any liability imposed upon him or her by the Act.
- 10.02 Indemnity - Except in respect of an action by or on behalf of the Centre to procure a judgment in its favour, the Centre shall indemnify a director or officer of the Centre, and a former director or officer of the Centre, and his or her heirs, executors and legal representatives, against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by him or her in respect of any civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding to which he or she is made a party by reason of being or having been a director or officer of the Centre, if:
- (a) he or she acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Centre; and
  - (b) in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, he or she has reasonable grounds for believing that his or her conduct was lawful.

In accordance with the provisions of the Act, the Centre shall indemnify any person referred to in this Section 10.02 who has been substantially successful in the defence of any civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding to which he or she is made a party by reason of being or having been a director or officer of the Centre against all costs, charges and expenses reasonably incurred by him or her in respect of such action or proceedings.

- 10.03 Insurance - Subject to the limitations contained in the Act, the Centre may purchase and maintain such insurance for the benefit of its directors and officers as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine. Currently, the City of Winnipeg purchases Directors & officers liability insurance for the centre.
